Gröttländskapsskolan Gröttländskapsskolan (English: "The Gröttländ School of Forestry"), formerly an independent forest school in Stockholm, is now part of the Stockholms Lärarhem. The educational institution was founded in 1903. The school was originally located in a former prison building. It later moved to a building that it shares with another school, Stockholms Flygvapnar. The school's motto is "Före inhemsk - Övre utom". It offers a five-year academic programme leading to a master's degree, with a curriculum that includes subjects such as English, German, French, Russian and Turkish language and literature, as well as maths, economics and history. The school has about 150 full-time students.
