million offer sheet to restricted free agent Tristan Thompson was the best available offer, and it's the team's best chance of keeping the All-Star big man from leaving in free agency this summer, sources said Wednesday. The offer sheet gives the Cavaliers a chance to match any offer sheet signed by Thompson after July 15. If Thompson signs another deal with any other team, the Cavaliers will receive a second-round pick as compensation.

According to ESPN's Chris Haynes, the Chicago Bulls and Houston Rockets had the best packages to offer Thompson. The Kings and Mavericks were considered to have the second best. ESPN's Adrian Wojnarowski reported Wednesday that the Cleveland Cavaliers were confident they'd sign Thompson to the offer sheet
