The game is a prequel to the first installment of the main series, Resident Evil 4. It was released in the US on June 21, 2009. It features four playable characters; Leon S. Kennedy, Chris Redfield, Jake Muller, and Rebecca Chambers. Leon and Chris have a campaign and survival modes. Jake and Rebecca have a separate survival mode. A short time before the events of Resident Evil 4, S.T.A.R.S. agents led by Leon and Chris locate the Umbrella Corporation's sinister lab where experiments were performed on the T-Virus. The experiment was a failure, and the mutated specimen escaped, infecting a town called Raccoon City. As the Umbrella Corporation attempts to cover up the failed experiment and continue their work, the S.T.A.R.S. agents face increasingly grotesque foes, including zombies and mutant creatures, while desperately searching for a cure. The game was first revealed in a trailer titled Operation Raccoon City, released on March 13, 2008. A Microsoft Game Studios press release officially announced the title on July 8, 2008. A GameSpot article released on July 10, 2008, was the first to provide a detailed description of the game. The game was released in Europe on November 3, 2009. Gameplay Like Resident Evil 4, Operation Raccoon City is a third-person shooter. The game has four playable characters. The four characters have a campaign mode as well as a survival mode. The campaign mode features the four playable characters as the player takes on the missions of a S.T.A.R.S. agent. The survival mode is the same as Resident Evil 4, but is also a third-person shooter. The player must survive a variety of enemies and environments, including hordes of zombies, mutated creatures, and the Umbrella Corporation's security officers. The game features all of the weapons and upgrades from Resident Evil 4. The new weapon upgrades include a flamethrower, a crossbow, and a taser gun. The game also features some new attacks such as a punch and multiple kicks. The number of enemies on screen increases in certain areas, and the player has access to stealth options such as "blend in" and "slip past". Plot A year before the events of Resident Evil 4, S.T.A.R.S. agents led by Leon S. Kennedy and Chris Redfield discover the Umbrella Corporation's sinister laboratory, located
