But that return to work comes with a significant disciplinary measure from the state. Sgt. Peter Passoquin, who has been cleared of fraud and conspiracy charges, has been suspended from his job as a deputy district attorney and placed on indefinite suspension from the State Bar of California, the agency that governs attorneys in California. The decision came about a year after Passoquin was indicted by a federal grand jury in San Jose on an embezzlement charge. He had served as a # municipal judge in Santa Cruz County from 2010 until 2012 and had been on the bench for 17
