According to latest reports, Pakistani forces are conducting an operation in the area. However the resistance by the militants has been proving tough. The TTP's spokesperson, Shahidullah Shahid, confirmed the news regarding the death of TTP commander Mohsina. He said they had ambushed an army convoy when they were returning from Swat where they were carrying out operation against the militants. He added that the death of TTP commander Mohsina has left TTP with a loss of more than 50 militants since the operation was launched. He said that a number of fresh reinforcements have reached the location to take part in the operation. He added that they will return to Wana but most of them will reach Afghanistan. The spokesperson further claimed that the Pakistani army will leave Wana after handing over the area to Afghan forces. The operation has started after the Wana launchpad which has been targeted by the Pakistani forces several times in the past.I would love to write a more in-depth review of this lens, but I just couldn't due to the fact that I hadn't been able to use this lens for a long time. I have been meaning to get back to this lens since I bought it, but I've been just too busy for such an in-depth review. It seems the filmic properties of the lens don't really translate to digital, but that's fine. I want to do more in-depth reviews of lenses for photography rather than just "lens reviews" to be honest. So, instead of going
