Kirix Strata With Product Key X64 [Updated-2022]

Kirix Strata Crack is a "data browser" - a fusion of a web browser and a built-in relational database. Strata brings the sensibilities and simplicity of a web browser to the world of tabular data, making it easy to access, view and use data from any source. Strata serves as a bridge between local data files, database management systems and data on the web. You can access data from local sources and across the web, mash it together, and quickly work with it to gain new insights or create ad hoc reports to share with others. Strata makes it possible to manipulate and analyze data in a rapid-fire, interactive manner. You will be able to cut out a number of steps for all common data-related tasks thus dramatically reducing the time it would take to get the results you want. Here are some key features of "Kirix Strata": Access Data from Anywhere Open CSV files, HTML tables and RSS feeds directly from the web into structured tables. You can also easily grab local data files from your desktop or connect to database systems like MySQL and Oracle. Rich Data Environment Work with your data in a rich environment, designed exactly for this purpose. Sort, filter, and reformat data with a single click. Quickly cut through the clutter of new data sets and gather useful insights. Data Bookmarks Bookmark data from the web, local files, and database systems, such as MySQL. Keep your data handy - organize bookmarks in folders on your toolbar and just click one to open a data file. Built-In Database Store and manipulate as much data as you like with Strata's built-in relational database. It's built for speed and can handle just about any amount of data - up to 60 billion records per table. Dynamic Calculations Create dynamic calculations instantly across a full data set - and see the results as you type. You can reformat your data, extract embedded values, and test and edit regular expressions interactively. Report Writer Develop reports directly from web data, local files, or database systems. Quickly flip between pages and template views for an intuitive design experience. Creating a report is as simple as using a spreadsheet. Data Relationships Interactively combine data from different files. Just hook them together and then drag and drop columns from one into the other. Compare data between related
