Thanks in advance A: I'm on 1.8.2, I can't find the option in the project view either. The build.gradle files are either in the project structure, or under a build folder. The Android Studio documentation doesn't specify where it should be placed, and I haven't come across

The goal of the program is to stimulate consumption in order to promote growth, which in turn will lead to higher levels of employment. Japan has carried out a large QE, which resulted in the increase of the Yen, which in turn led to a fall in exports to China and a rise in exports to other emerging markets, such as Brazil and Mexico, as well as the US. In addition, measures such as public investment have been taken in order to boost growth rates. Naval Shipbuilders of Japan (NSBJ) is the only domestic shipyard capable of building naval ships of the Japanese Maritime Self Defense Force (JMSDF). Previously, JMSDF vessels were always built abroad. However, nowadays, some of the newbuild vessels are being assembled locally. This project is due to be completed in 2022. By the year 2025, it is projected that some 50% of the fleet's newbuild construction will take place in Japanese shipyards. The Japan Maritime Self Defense Force (JMSDF) is the world's largest navy and 3e33713323
