Huh) TORONTO — Montreal Impact players shook their heads in disbelief as they were patted on the back by the Montreal crowd after each of their three goals in their 1-0 victory over the Chicago Fire on Wednesday. Nelson Rivas, who beat his father, Uruguayan star Walter, with a long-range header in the 56th minute, made a note of the fans' support for him and for the club. “It's amazing,” the young attacker said. “It was difficult to celebrate at first. I was not used to it. Now I'm starting to understand it. The crowd loves us, they're always behind us. I feel good that the city supports us.” Montreal will play at the White Hart Lane (England) stadium on Saturday, May 3 in the first leg of the second leg of the Amway Canadian Championship semifinal series. The Fire will host Eastern Conference leaders Toronto FC in the first game in Harrison, N.J. on Wednesday. In the 90th minute, striker Collen Warner scored his first goal for Montreal off a header by Ignacio Piatti. Warner was a late addition to
