Although those times are over, I still like to go with friends or family members to the nearest airport and see how far we can drive. It was the same when I was younger. My friend and I used to go for drives to some remote, secluded areas. So, one afternoon, we had an idea of how to make a road trip even more fun and interesting. We had on our side, a blanket, some drinks and a few pillows to sit on. After we decided on a location, we began to pack our bags. We had a lot of food, drinks, blankets and pillows packed in our car. Although we had plenty of fun, but later, we realized how silly we were. Here's the best part – and yes, this is a true story. My friend and I were driving and stopped at an intersection. As we were driving, we heard the traffic sign man saying, "I would also advise you to slow down, there is a road construction going on." We got irritated and were about to yell at him when we got distracted. While driving, we saw a small construction road going on near the highway. Since we had a great idea to drive far away and get the best place to relax, we decided to play it safe. As I was driving, I saw a police officer and flagged him down. My friend rolled down
