Backcountry Bizarre Through Time and Space features over 30 puppets and characters that take you on a journey through space, history, fantasy and music. These imaginative characters will lead you on a voyage through time and space with a look at some of the most bizarre and unbelievable stories from our shared history. Every performance is different! The exhibition features a variety of characters of all sizes. Many are elevated on platforms, others walk or bounce about, and some are kept down to earth. For the most part puppeteers are featured. Rare puppeteer/acrobat of film, puppeteer/acrobat of theatre is performing in the exhibition for the first time. They are actors with puppets. New characters include: Tea Bubbles and Polly - a Sesame Street character gone mad on hallucinogens Elisa - A highly evolved alien life-form, she is cute, manipulative, and can even read our minds. Doc – A bizarre medical creature that exhibits a bit of Dr. Frankenstein's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde features Rio – A hustler from a parallel universe who is attempting to con his way into this one Lucy – A musical comedian's band made of puppets from the popular musical contential s band made of puppets from the populat musical comedy film Julie's Turnaround in the 60s. Doc and Rio making a new friend The workshop table is used to teach students techniques and materials used by puppeteers and object manipulators. The exhibition is performed 5 nights a week on the Museum's small stage, except August 15-17th when the Smith Opera Theater is being refurbished. In addition to these performances, the exhibition will be open to the public by appointment. In this year of the 75th anniversary of the founding of The Center for Puppetry Arts, The Center has enlisted a number of guest companies, both on the stage and also as participants on the exhibition, to help tell these stories for the very first time. They include: Camp Ondamay Sailing Company's 3e33713323
