FolderFixXP helps you to keep your desktop organized by quickly restoring your desktop icons to the default, invisible Shell Icons. The application is designed to keep you organized and focused, while saving time and effort. You can sort your desktop icons by selecting the appropriate category - such as Documents, Downloads, Favorites, Programs, or Music. After selecting a category, FolderFixXP displays the desktop icons in the selected order. You can then search for the folder or file you are looking for, and select it by a single click. For example, you can sort your favorite or most frequently used files and folders in a different category to make it easy to find. Simple and clear interface and functionality Use the pre-defined categories or create your own sorting, rename and hide options, to save time. The categories include the standard options and the special categories for music, videos, pictures, documents, downloads, and favorites. You can select the folders to be restored, and even restore only parts of a folder. It's easy to organize the icons by placing them on your desktop and then using the right-click menu to remove the shortcuts or to select only some icons. Simple to use application - easy to restore, organize and rename icons Simple and easy to use, no complicated menus or advanced options, simply restore your icons right away. Restore and organize desktop icons The application is able to restore and organize desktop icons. You can also sort them by name, type, size, or location, and set which folders you want to restore. Faster restore The restore menu enables you to speed up the restore process. You can select a folder and then choose to restore only certain items or the entire folder. Hide and restore icons You can save time by hiding the icons, to display only the folder or files you want.

This ensures that you have less clutter on your desktop, so you can stay organized and focused.

What's New In?

FolderFix XP is a small utility to restore folders' icons. One of the most annoying things on Windows operating systems is that the icons of some folders are replaced by the default ones instead of the custom ones you have set. You can free your computer of this problem in seconds with this tool. If you run your Windows system as a user (don't run the program as administrator), the utility will reset the icons to your preference and has no side effects. In addition, it fixes both the shell folder and all the sub folders contained by it. FolderFix XP provides the scope of the local machine and the current user. You can specify the location of folders to be fixed. For instance, you can assign it to the desktop or any other location, as well as the favorites bar (Start Menu), e-mail, etc. If you want to reset the icon to the system-wide defaults, add the location of the Desktop to the Fix Locations list. You can also add the folders where to apply the change. For instance, you can change icons in the system-wide and in your Windows programs, as well as applications and browser favorites. To restore the default icons, you have to select the folder, click the Fix button and press the OK button. After that, you'll notice that the icons will change back to their original ones.
