The Pursuit of Pawns is the definitive book on the art of attack. Ron Graham, one of the world's foremost chess masters, presents some of the finest games ever played from the days of Steinitz and Anderssen to the modern masters Fischer and Kasparov. Games include the world's greatest checkmate, spectacular attacks, and brilliant pieces sacrifices. In addition, this delightful volume includes articles about the movement and work of pawns, and an introduction to the philosophy of chess. Pawns Gone Wild! is an open edition reprint of the lost, but fortunately rediscovered, chess classic by Roy Shaw. It covers the endgame tactics, and short story chess, that have never before been collected together. The ebook is ready for you to download in pdf format. Essential Chess Lessons is an ideal chess book for the beginning player. If you're a young kid, avid fan, or passionate about chess, this book is for you.
